PROCESS:

BCEDC has a Loan Review Committee which typically meets during the first week of the month to review and process loan applications. Following a favorable loan determination the Loan Review Committee's decision will be presented to the full BCEDC Board of Directors for ratification at their monthly meeting, which is held the second week of the month. If the loan is approved by the Board of Directors the loan client will receive a series of documents for review and execution including a commitment letter and memorandum of agreement. Once these documents are executed and returned to BCEDC, BCEDC will contact legal counsel to schedule a closing. Closings can typically be scheduled within a week from the date the abovementioned documents are returned; however, it is subject to legal counsel's availability. The following is a list of information normally required to review a loan application:
